DATA PROTECTION CONSENT STATEMENT

Sailing for the Disabled holds personal information in order for the charity to operate its membership role and to provide services for its members. We use the information to contact you about membership services as well as making you aware of any aspects of the Charity's operations which may impact upon you. Sailing for the Disabled is legally bound by the General Data Protection Regulations to ensure that any data they hold on individuals is relevant, accurate and not excessive. Additionally, it must be fairly and lawfully processed, held for defined purposes, be accurate and up to date, not kept for longer than necessary, processed in line with your rights and must be secure. We will ensure that all data held is treated in accordance with these principles. How we will do this is outlined in our Privacy Policy which can be found on our website at www.sftd-iom.com.

Please rest assured that we will not be selling or misusing any personal data and we do not intend to contact you too often; we merely need your formal agreement for us to use your data to establish routine correspondence in line with your membership of the Charity. To opt out at any time, please email secretary@sftd-iom.com with your request.
